Hector Guerra is a Spanish born MC currently based in Mexico City who is steadily working his way around the world collaborating with a seemingly endless roster of Spanish language Hip-Hop artists including most notably Mellow Man Ace (of Mentirosa fame, it was on MTV you can look it up).

"What Up?" is a completely unique collaboration between Hector Guerra and banda musicians from Michoacan, México. Fans of Mexican Banda Michoacana, will instantly recognize the accompaniment but Balkan and Klezmer wise listeners will undoubtedly key-in to the clarinet driven melodies and almost ommpah style tuba driven bass line. Hard hitting drums and Hector's lyrical prowess provides a unifying energy that is sure to get hip-hop heads nodding in affirmation.

This is a party JAM that always generates positive dance floor response and we just had to capture it on vinyl forever. Enjoy!
