Los Daddy's first release on vinyl is quite possibly the first of it's genre on vinyl.

Los Daddys is a Cumbia Sonidera band from Puebla, Mexico near the capital, Mexico City.

Los Daddy's sound is very approachable to the uninitiated listener but to gain a full appreciation for Cumbia Sonidera one must familiarize themselves with the origins of sonidero (DJ) sound system culture and Cumbia Rebajada, which literally means "slowed cumbia".

As the Sonideros (DJs) slowed the tempos of the fast Colombian Cumbión music, the pitch went down with it, resulting in a heavier, deeper bass sound. The re-interpretation of these classic tunes in a slow and low fashion is what gives the Cumbia Sonidera and Los Daddys their distinctive sound and dance floor appeal.

We at Discos Más are very honored and proud to put Los Daddys on vinyl for our 4th release.
