el disco es cultura

This seven inch single is the vinyl debut from the Oakland bred DJ and Discos Más mail room employee of the year, 5 years in a row!

"Cumbia Chulita" is a song dedicated to all the DJs affiliated with the Chulita Vinyl Club, a sprawling DJ collective who have made quite a name for themselves spinning Cumbias in front of crowds all over the US.

The B-side, "Saludos desde Oakland" which loosely translates to "Shout Out from Oakland", is a tribute to all the sonideros (Cumbia DJs) around the world and specifically to the sonidero culture that began in Mexico City. "Saludos Desde Oakland" features Wilson Pozada, also known as Reporte Ilegal, delivering the saludos to all of our cumbia compatriots around the world wherever they may be.
